Re: Williams v. Federal Government of Nigeria et al.
Case No.: 1:23-cv-7356 (LJL)

Dear Judge Linman:

We represent the Central Bank of Nigeria, a defendant in the above-captioned action, and are writing on behalf of all parties in accordance with the Court's Order, dated October 8, 2024. We are pleased to report that the parties have reached an agreement concerning the dates, location and the mechanics of how plaintiff's deposition will be conducted. The parties have agreed to conduct the deposition in London on December 17-19, 2024. The parties have agreed to a 12-hour time limit for testimony at the deposition so that we are able to accommodate plaintiff's health issues while affording the defendants sufficient time to take a full and complete deposition. A court reporter will be present at the deposition and the deposition will be videotaped. Additionally, access to the deposition will be available by video-conference in the event anyone wishes to appear remotely. The defendants have agreed to share the costs associated with the deposition (i.e. court reporter, videographer and arranging for the video-conference). Finally, each party has agreed to bear its own costs regarding travel and lodging.

Respectfully submitted
